

WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN THE INSTITUTE FOR ISLAMIC, CHRISTIAN, AND JEWISH STUDIES

Teachers Fellowship

What is the fellowship?

The Teachers Fellowship is a 10-month cohort-based professional development opportunity for secondary school educators. The fellowship equips teachers with skills to foster interreligious literacy in their classrooms and to become interreligious leaders in their schools.

ICJS Commitments

- Participation in diverse adult learning community
- Consultation with ICJS scholars
- Opportunity to create lesson plan
- Stipend

Fellow Commitments

- Attend monthly meetings (October-June)
- Attend half-day retreat
- Prepare, present, and share one original Lesson Plan for your classroom
- Write one reflection piece for ICJS "Teacher Voices" column
- Participate in correlated learning experiences

HOW TO JOIN

- Fill out the interest form at the QR code below
- Fellowship start date: October 12, 2023

Scan the QR code to learn more

