

INTERRELIGIOUS
CAPACITY-BUILDING

Grant Opportunity

In partnership with the T. Rowe Foundation, the Institute for Islamic, Christian, and Jewish Studies is offering interreligious Capacity-Building Grants.

What is the grant for?

The grant is for nonprofit and community leaders who have a project or initiative that helps an organization (or its staff or clients) to cross religious barriers to accomplish a project for the common good.

Who can apply?

All alumni of the following ICJS fellowship cohorts are eligible to apply: Justice Leader Fellows (2020, 2021, or 2022-2023), Imagining Justice Fellows (2018), or Community Leaders Cohort (2016).

IMPORTANT DATES

- Application deadline:
November 22, 2023
- Awards announced:
December 11, 2023
- Time period for use of funds:
December 15, 2023–May 17, 2024

[CLICK HERE FOR
MORE INFORMATION](#)